

NEW ENGLISH SCHOOL KUWAIT

The New English School is a well established, oversubscribed, international, co-educational school for students from KG to Year 13. The school is situated in Jabriya, a suburb of Kuwait city. Students take IGCSE, and Cambridge/Edexcel AS and A level examinations. The school has an excellent academic record with a full extra curricular programme offered to students.

REQUIRED FOR SEPTEMBER

PRIMARY SCHOOL

Foundation Stage

- A teacher to teach KG and to coordinate and lead the year group.

KS1

- A teacher of Year 2 to coordinate and lead the year group.

KS2

- A teacher of Year 4 to coordinate and lead the year group.
- A class teacher for Year 5.

SECONDARY SCHOOL

- Deputy Head Teacher with responsibility for students in Years 7 -9.
- Head of geography
- Head of English
- Head of music
- Teachers of: physics (possibly with chemistry)
economics/business studies
accounting/business Studies
ICT
English/drama
English/French
Art & Design
- Also a teacher of music for either primary or secondary or possibly both age ranges with the ability to teach brass instruments.

The contract of employment offer provides a competitive tax-free salary, terminal gratuity, furnished accommodation, local medical insurance and annual return airline ticket.

There are opportunities for training and continued professional development.

The school seeks to appoint dynamic and enthusiastic teachers to the above positions.

Detailed job descriptions are available on application.

Candidates with relevant qualifications and experience who believe they can make a contribution to the school should apply with a letter of application, C.V. and a completed application form (from www.neskt.com) to:

The Director, New English School, Kuwait. Fax: +965 25319924, email: admin@neskt.com.

The deadline for applications is Sunday, 31st January 2010. Interviews will take place in late February in London.